

SOCIAL EVENTS

FAE-KAE COSTUME PARTY.

The Fae-Kae club girls were entertained at a Halloween costume party Saturday evening by the Misses Marian Atkinson and Emma Dingeldein at the home of the former on Twelfth street, South Rock Island. Many pretty and novel costumes were worn, prizes were given for the best. A witch in her den told the fortunes of the girls, and they were initiated into the order of mysteries in a trip to the attic. Halloween decorations were used about the house and a lunch was served during the evening.

D. OF. V. HALLOWEEN PARTY.

A Halloween party was given by Lucrétia Garfield tent, Daughters of Veterans, Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. May Gamare, 4504 Fifteenth avenue, and was a big success both socially and financially. About 70 guests were present during the evening, and at the street car they were met by a ghost bearing a United States emblem and conducted to the house. Here they were met at the door by a witch who pinned on each either a black cat, a pumpkin head or other Halloween novelty. These were numbered and later matched to find partners for refreshments. The house was decorated with novelties of the season and red apples were hung in festoons about the rooms, pumpkins with lighted candles and ghosts completing the decorations. As a guessing contest 30 of the Daughters, whose identity was disguised by pillow cases and sheets, paraded through the rooms repeating a single sentence, the guests being asked to identify the person by the voice. Three musical selections were given by son and daughters of the hostess, who played piano, violin and mandolin numbers, and were repeatedly enjoyed. Mrs. Fannie Knox-Jensen gave two readings that were much enjoyed. Comrade J. W. Dewrose read a poem that he had composed for this occasion, and Comrade J. C. Scholes also gave a humorous reading. Mrs. Lucy Grant had donated a hand made bag which she asked be given away, and it fell to Mrs. Harvey Gaskill, whose 15th wedding anniversary it happened to be. Pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee were served at the close of the program.

D. A. A. FIRST FALL MEETING.

The first meeting of the fall of Fort Armstrong chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held in the home of the regent, Mrs. G. G. Craig, 1720 Seventh avenue, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. F. W. Bahnsen, a former regent, gave a graphic report of the state D. A. A. meeting held last week in Elgin, which she attended as a delegate. Two splendid papers on the subject of Woman's Suffrage were given by Mrs. Cora Eastman, who spoke in its favor, and Mrs. C. C. Carter, who opposed it. Both papers showed careful preparation and thought and proved of great interest to the members.

The Daughters voted to make voluntary contributions to the National Red Cross society. At the close of the program an informal reception was held, the past regents and officers assisting in making the afternoon a very delightful one. Refreshments were served during the course of the afternoon. Mrs. H. C. First will act as hostess at the November meeting of the chapter.

COURT OF HONOR INSTALLATION

Sylvan Court of Honor No. 391 will hold public installation of officers at Odd Fellows' hall Wednesday, Nov. 4. After the program of installation, dancing will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served. District Manager McCollister will act as installing officer and he will be assisted by the officers and drill team of court No. 31. A large number of visitors and members of other courts in the city will attend and members of the order are invited to the exercises.

PRETTY HALLOWEEN PARTY.

The home of Miss Ethel Johnson, 427 Sixth street, was the scene of a happy gathering of about 12 girls Friday evening when a Halloween party was given by the junior and senior classes of St. Joseph's high school. The rooms were beautifully decorated with corn stalks, jack o'lanterns and autumn foliage combined with streamers of orange and black. The guests were received by a ghost. The evening was delightfully spent with games, singing and dancing. Piano selections were given by Misses Ethel Johnson and Dorothy Dierolf, and vocal numbers by Miss Henrietta Engleman and Fay Stoltenberg. The prizes in the contests were awarded to the Misses Helen Thiele and Henrietta Engleman and Joseph Dietz. At a late hour a three course Halloween supper was served. Those who attended were the Misses Henrietta Engleman, Ethel Johnson, Teresa Davis, Fay Stoltenberg, Dorothy Dierolf, Helen Thiele, Maude Gruby, Rose Mansfield, Grace Dierick, Catherine McNellis, Josephine and Alice Thiele.

G. A. G. GIRLS ENTERTAIN.

The G. A. G. girls entertained at a Halloween party Saturday evening, going by back to Camp Holly near Rock river. Halloween decorations trimmed the house, all manner of things suggestive of the season being used. In a smiling contest the prize was won by David Fitzgerald. Music and Halloween stunts were carried out and later the company enjoyed an oyster supper. Members of the club are the Misses Agnes Krone, Bess Cary, Anna Billbach, Margo Broderick, Bessie Wheelan, Edith Peterson, Florence Enstrom, Mabel and Grace Holcomb.

MISS FISHER HOSTESS PARTY.

Miss Edna Fisher at her home on Water street, Milan, entertained at a Halloween party Friday evening 12 friends, employees of Young & McCombs' store, being her guests. Decorations in the house were carried out with autumn leaves and Halloween suggestions. Games of various kinds were played and a lunch in keeping with the season was served.

TO CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY.

Harry Roth, proprietor of the Fair store, celebrated his 31st birthday Sunday evening by entertaining a company of friends at his home, 1206 Third avenue. The table was decorated with lovely carnations and chrysanthemums and here was served a course lunch. The evening was passed playing games, dancing and with vocal numbers by Miss Marion Roth, accompanied by Miss Rose Goldman.

The host was left with a number of gifts.

DANCING PARTY IN BARN.

Mrs. C. A. Olson entertained a company of 40 friends Saturday evening at a Halloween dancing party in a new barn that has just been completed at 1303 Thirtieth street. The barn had been decorated with quantities of autumn leaves, pumpkins and corn stalks and after various games and dancing a lunch was served at midnight. Musical numbers were given and other games played, completing a delightful evening.

S. P. CLUB ENTERTAINS.

A pretty Halloween party was held Saturday evening in the attic of the home of Miss Mabel Trenkensuh, 1106 Fifteenth street, in which the S. P. club girls acted as the hostesses to a large company of friends.

The guests came dressed as witches, ghosts, etc., and they found considerable difficulty in getting to the attic, which was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

Games were played and at a late hour a Halloween collation was served by the club girls.

ENTERTAIN AT HALLOWEEN PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie King at their home on Seventh avenue and Twelfth street entertained a company of friends Saturday evening at a Halloween party. Games, music and cards rounded out an evening of pleasure and delicious refreshments were served. Decorations suitable to the day were used throughout the house.

ST. CECILIA QUARTET TOMORROW.

The St. Cecilia quartet of Chicago will appear in recital at the New Harper tomorrow afternoon under the auspices of the Rock Island Musical club. The program will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock and will be complimentary to club members upon the presentation of their membership tickets. Those outside of the club will be admitted upon the payment of the fee as charged on former similar occasions. The program is an exceptionally good one and will entertain the most exacting listener.

GRADE SCHOOL HONORS TO BE CONTESTED FOR

The Lincoln and Horace Mann elevens played Friday afternoon, the latter team going down to defeat before their larger and heavier opponents, to the tune of 24 to 0. Friday's game was the third to be played on the schedule arranged by Coach Roe, and as yet the Hawthorne eleven is undefeated, having beaten the Lincoln squad the first two games of the season. Wednesday will be staged a clash between the Lincoln and Longfellow bunch, the winner to play the Hawthorne boys for the grade school championship of the city.

Over 25,000 bushels of grapes were this year shipped from one Ohio port to Detroit.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

SIMPLE HOME REMEDIES.

A good remedy for catarrh is crushed cubed berries smoked in a pipe, emitting the smoke through the nose. After a few trials this will be easy to do. If the nose is stopped up so that it is almost impossible to breathe, one pipette will make the head perfectly clear. For sore throat, asthma and bronchitis, swallowing the smoke effects quick relief. It is the best remedy in the world for offensive breath, and will make the most foul breath pure and sweet. Sufferers from that horrid disease, ulcerated catarrh, will find this relief unequalled. Eating the uncrushed berries is also good for sore throat, and all bronchial complaints. After smoking do not expose yourself to cold air for at least 15 minutes.

Healing and Softening Lotion for Hands, Face and Neck—Mix two ounces glycerin, two ounces bay rum, 25 drops tincture of benzoin; shake all together and add same amount of water after it has been boiled and cooled. Use it any time after having had your hands in water and cleanse your face and neck with it before retiring. The men of the home will find it delightful after shaving.

CLEAN THE TELEPHONE.

In homes where cleanliness and sanitation is carefully observed, one very frequently finds a flagrant omission in the matter of the telephone transmitter. Dust and dirt are allowed to accumulate therein, while members of the household and others continue to talk into it, the moisture of the mouth concealing and encouraging the spread of colds, throat disturbances and other infections. A bit of gauze dipped in alcohol, peroxide and water or any mild household antiseptic used on the transmitter every day or two would do much toward preserving the well-being of the household.

THE TABLE.

Sweet Pepper Patties—Six medium-sized peppers, remove seeds, cut in strips, cook in well salted water 10 minutes; drain, add generous cup of cheese cut fine, two eggs and two tablespoons flour. Mix well and fry on well greased griddle, a spoonful in a piece. Fry on both sides. Easily made and an excellent substitute for meat.

Meat Balls With Spaghetti (Italian dish)—One and one-half pounds round steak, one cup bread crumbs, three eggs, one-half cup Roman cheese, one-half cup ground salt pork, salt and pepper. Make into balls and fry. Cook spaghetti in usual way with one can tomatoes, and pour over meat balls.

Apple Pudding—Peel apples, remove cores without breaking apples, put in pudding dish and fill openings in apples with sugar, jam, honey or quince jelly. Partly bake until fairly soft. Make custard of four eggs, four tablespoons sugar, four cups milk, flavor with lemon or vanilla; pour custard over apples, replace in oven till custard is set. Cool and serve.

Effless Ginger Cookies—One tin cup light brown sugar, one tin cup baking molasses, one tin cup shortening, one tin cup boiling water, five teaspoons soda, two tablespoons ginger, pinch salt, flour enough to make a soft dough. Proceed the same as for any kind of cookies, but be sure to scald the soda with the boiling water. This recipe makes quite a number of cookies and they are good as long as they last.

Delicious Jelly and Marmalade from a 15-cent basket of quinces—Wash quinces, cut out all imperfections and core, but do not pare. Cut in small pieces, cover with cold water and boil until fruit is tender; drain in jelly bag over night. Do not squeeze bag, as the jelly will be clearer. Measure juice and boil ten minutes. Skim and add a little less than cup for cup of granulated sugar; boil until a little in a saucer will jelly—usually ten or fifteen minutes. This will make six glasses of beautiful, clear jelly. Now take contents of bag, add more cold water and boil until smooth, add the grated yellow rind and juice of three medium-sized oranges. Measure and add cup for cup of sugar and boil until desired thickness. This will make three pints and three glasses of marmalade.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: A number of boys have formed a walking club and we plan to take a long walk every week, usually Saturday or Sunday. We want to give an out-door party and invite our girl friends. What should we serve? THE BOYS.

That is a jolly idea. Serve nothing that you will need to have help in getting. Make a fine bonfire and when you have a good bed of coals put in a couple of potatoes for each guest, wrapped in wet clay an inch thick; cover with coals, make a good fire above them and in three-quarters of an hour—for medium sized potatoes—they will be done. Drag them out with a big stick, strike the mud shell and it will crumble away. Open the potato at one end and eat it out of the shell with a spoon, putting in salt and pepper as you proceed. Make coffee, get rolls and wienies, roast the latter over the fire on forked sticks, cut the bun open and spread the toasted wienie out inside, making a delicious sandwich. Some people prefer bacon toasted over the fire and made into sandwiches. Both are fine. Doughnuts would be cake enough and, of course, pickles and cheese would be a more complete menu. A lunch of this kind is much more fun than any elaborate preparations. If you take a popper and urn, it makes a delightful ending to the feast to sit about the fire, pop corn and tell stories.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I received a letter from a young man not long ago and my father got it out of the box and opened it. He said if I was corresponding with boys he wanted to know what it was about. Has he any right to do this? ANGRY.

It is the privilege of every person to open his own mail. He has no legal right to touch your letters and he is very shortsighted to pursue such a course. Probably he has your best interest at heart. Try having a plain, respectful talk with him, telling him just how you feel about it and ask him to respect your letters. If you can, hand him your letters to read after you have read them, to show him you had nothing to conceal.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have several warts on my head and would like to have a remedy that will not injure the hair. I am 11 years old. How should I wear my hair and how long should my dresses be? Will tan serge trimmed in green mescaline be suitable for a winter dress? T. G.

Nitric acid will remove warts, but as it is a deadly poison great care must be used if you try the remedy. Have someone put the acid on the warts with a toothpick and touch nothing but the wart. Sometimes a single application will remove it. Hair tied with ribbons on top of the head is usually becoming to girls of that age. If large, wear dresses to shoe tops. Size, not age, governs the length of dresses. I should think the dress very suitable.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will you please tell me some sewing school which requires three months' time to complete the course? CURLY HAIR.

If you write to the nearest Y. M. C. A. that gives courses in dressmaking they will give you full information. They give 50 lessons for a course and you can have evening work or day lessons, as you choose.

That the bank of England and the bank of Germany have each gained upwards of $100,000,000 gold since the first week of August, and that the French bank has lost about $12,000,000, is generally known. The bank of the Netherlands has lost $2,500,000; the Imperial bank of Russia has gained $5,000,000; the bank of Norway has lost $3,400,000.

It seems a very courteous thing to do. If a person has gone to the trouble to give a party and given pleasure to a number of friends, the least they can do is to call and show her that they appreciate her efforts. It is a good plan for two or three young men to make a party call together. It makes it pleasant for all, usually.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please advise me as to the best way to remove stains from a mattress. DAILY READER.

That is hard to do, but the following has been effective in some instances: Wash dust out of spots and coats with a paste of starch and ammonia or starch and peroxide of hydrogen. Leave for two days, then sponge with peroxide and lay in sun to dry.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I love my first cousin dearly and she loves me the same. We do not want to do wrong, and want to do right in the sight of God. Is it wrong for first cousins to marry? Please tell us. JOHNSON.

The trouble with the marriage of first cousins is that children of people so nearly related are apt to be dull or defective in some way. It is not a prejudice and religion has nothing to do with it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will you please tell me some sewing school which requires three months' time to complete the course? CURLY HAIR.

If you write to the nearest Y. M. C. A. that gives courses in dressmaking they will give you full information. They give 50 lessons for a course and you can have evening work or day lessons, as you choose.
